

Caroline Sabina Wekullo, Ph.D. is a Lecturer, a research scientist and a policy analyst affiliated with MMUST. Caroline received her doctorate degree in Educational Administration with emphasis in Higher Education Policy, financing and Leadership from Texas A&M University, and Master of Philosophy in Economics of Education from Moi University. She has vast experience in education policy issues, advanced research methodology, grants management and project monitoring and evaluation. Her research interest centers on Policy matters in educational institutions; Student access, retention, engagement and completion; Faculty mentoring, Performance, and productivity as well as strategic planning and management. Her research also focuses on resources mobilization in institutions of Learning, Leadership in higher learning institutions and Mental Health and Wellness among students and faculty. Caroline is in charge of developing financial models for the D4.2 Sustainability Plan, ensuring long-term viability of mobility programs for project RECLAIM.

Orcid: 0000-0002-0148-9069

Research Gate: <https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Caroline-Wekullo>

Google scholar: <https://scholar.google.com/citations?user=Vkq5pUAAAAAJ>